

Amsterdam Kant Conference 2026: Moral Epistemology & Metaphysics

Dates: 22 & 23 October 2026

Location: Chirurgisch Theater - University Library, Vendelstraat 2

Hosted by the Philosophy Department of the University of Amsterdam

Thursday, October 22

09:00 - 9:20	Coffee
09:20 - 9:30	Welcome
9:30 - 11:00	Patrick Kain (Purdue University) - tba
11:00 - 11:15	Coffee
11:15 - 12:00	Katie Coyne (UC Berkeley) - Moral Belief and Communicability
12:00 - 12:45	Tijn Smits (Universiteit van Amsterdam / Humboldt Universität Berlin) - Freedom as an Object of Knowledge: Practical Cognition and its Modal Constraint
12:45 - 13:45	Lunch
13:45 - 14:30	Davide Dalla Rosa (Universität Trier / Goethe Universität Frankfurt) - Kant on Moral Assertoric Judgments
14:30 - 15:15	Caleb Reidy (University of Pittsburgh / University of Arkansas) - Truth in Practical Judgment
15:15 - 15:30	Coffee
15:30 - 17:00	Anja Jauernig (New York University) - tba
17:00 - 17:10	Closing

Friday, October 23

09:00 - 9:20	Coffee
09:20 - 9:30	Welcome
9:30 - 11:00	Jessica Tizzard (Universität Tübingen) - tba
11:00 - 11:15	Coffee
11:15 - 12:00	Bas Tönissen (Princeton University / Universität Trier) - "Two Great Moral Forces": The Love-Respect Dynamic in Kant's Ethics
12:00 - 12:45	Amy Duong (University of Bristol) - Moral Cognition through Catechism
12:45 - 13:45	Lunch
13:45 - 14:30	Noam Hoffer (Bar-Ilan University) - On the Unity of the Theoretical and Practical Use of the Ideas of Reason: A Regulative Expressivist Account
14:30 - 15:15	Martina Favaretto (Rijksuniversiteit Groningen) - The Motive of Duty is Not a Commitment to Rightness De Dicto
15:15 - 15:30	Coffee
15:30 - 17:00	Andrew Chignell (Princeton University) - tba
17:00 - 17:10	Closing

This conference is generously supported by the UvA Philosophy Department, Philosophy and Public Affairs Group, Amsterdam School for Cultural Analysis, and the Dutch Research Council.